Dear Parents/ Carers

Arrangements during GCSE Exam Period

GCSE exams start on Monday 16th May, during this period the school will be running additional morning, afternoon and evening revision classes to support your child with their revision. To facilitate these additional sessions, students have today been provided with a timetable.

The Cherbourg timetable can be viewed here. The Shakespeare timetable can be viewed here.

Weeks commencing 16th May, 23rd May and 6th June

- All students must be in school attending tutor, lessons and enhancement between 08:30 and 16:00
- During this period, subject teachers will be running revision sessions before 08:30 and after 16:00, whilst attendance is recommended, it is not compulsory. Individual subjects will communicate with students on these specific arrangements.
- If a student has an exam at 09:00 they should go to that subject during tutor time. e.g For a Maths exam, the students will go to their Maths teacher at 08:30.
- If a student has an exam at 13:00 they should go to that subject at the start of period 3. e.g. for a Geography exam, the students will go to their Geography teacher at 12:00.
- When a student finishes an exam or does not have an exam they should attend their normal timetabled lesson.

Weeks commencing 13th June and 20th June

- From Monday 13th June, there are occasions when students have lessons for subjects which have no more exams.
- In these limited circumstances it may be possible for students to arrive later than 08:30 and/ or leave earlier than 16:00.
- The times when this is the case are highlighted yellow on the timetable which has been sent home today.
- In the example below, all students must be in school from 08:30 on Monday, however any students who do not study Geography may leave at 13:20.
- On Tuesday 14th June, only Geography students are required in school at 08:30, Food Tech and D&T students must come to school at 10:15 and all other students must be in school by 12:00

General guidance for students

- If a student is arriving after 08:30 or leaving before 14:50 they must sign in and out via reception.
- Students must go straight to their lesson and must not wander around the school site.
- Students must wear full school uniform at all times they are on the school site.
- If you do not want your child arriving late or leaving early please inform the school. There will be provision in school to complete revision activities.
- Students are expected to use any time not in school to complete revision for any upcoming exams

Yours sincerely
